To members of the Harvard Law School Association of Japan:

Re: Notice of Spring Meeting of This Year

Dear fellow members:

I hope this letter will find you doing well.

This is to inform you that the HLSA of Japan will hold this year's spring meeting (the 61st meeting of the HLSAJ) as follows. Professor David B. Wilkins, Lester Kissel Professor of Law; Director, Center on the Legal Profession; Vice Dean for Global Initiatives on the Legal Profession (HLS J.D., 1980), will be the guest speaker. Professor Wilkins will briefly visit Japan in mid-February and has kindly accepted our request that he join us as guest speaker for the second time, following his first appearance as guest speaker at the spring meeting of 2013. The subject of his speech is unfortunately unknown as of the date of this letter. Since, however, Professor Wilkins is such a great speaker, I believe his talk, be it on his research projects or on what is going on in Cambridge, will be of great interest to us all.

Date and time of the meeting: February 10, 2015 (Tuesday), from 18:30
Place: Josui Kaikan Tel: 03-3261-1101
(please see the enclosed map for the location)
Dinner charge: 6,000 yen for members and 4,000 yen for guests, both payable at the meeting
